Grammaticalization meets Construction Grammar

Keynote speakers
Graeme Trousdale (University of Edinburgh)
Martin Hilpert (University of Neuchâtel)
Jóhanna Barðdal (Ghent University)

Thursday October 8th
9.30-9.45 Introduction
9.45-10.45 Plenary: Jóhanna Barðdal (Ghent University)
How Do Construction Grammar and Grammaticalization Overlap?
10.45-11.10 Coffee
11.10-11.40 Anja Hennemann
The grammaticalization of topic marking constructions in Spanish 11.40-12.10 Patricia Noel
The grammaticalization of V1 conditionals
12.10-12.40 Yuko Higashihara
Insubordinate constructions and the left and right peripheries in Modern Japanese
12.40-13.10 Andreas Hoelzl
Constructionalization Areas: The case of negation in Manchu
13.10-14.10 Lunch
14.10-14.40 Linnea Bäckström
Temporal auxiliary drop in Swedish – a matter of constructionalization?
14.40-15.10 Maarten Lemmens & Magdise Lesulka
Constructions and hafly missed grammaticalization: A diachronic study of English posture verbs
15.10-15.40 Torodd Kinn
Scandinavian pseudocoodinations: Constructional variants and grammaticalization
15.40-16.05 Coffee
16.05-16.35 Stefan Hartmann & Jakob Neels
Reduction or expansion – A bit of both. A case study on the development of degree modifiers
16.35-17.05 Caterina Guardamagna
Constructionalization and constructional changes in the evolution of Latin secondum, NP
17.15-18.15 Plenary: Graeme Trousdale (University of Edinburgh)
Three areas where grammaticalization and construction grammar don’t meet
19.30 Dinner

Friday October 9th
8.45-9.45 Plenary: Martin Hilpert (University of Neuchâtel)
Approaching grammaticalization from a constructional perspective: The upward-strengthening hypothesis
9.45-10.05 Coffee
10.05-10.35 Fredrik Valdeson
Old and Early Modern Swedish giva ‘give’ and the caused-motion construction. The gradual emergence of a dative alienation.
10.35-11.05 Timothy Colleman & Dario Rens
What counts as evidence for constructionalization. New data on the emergence of the Dutch krijgen-passive
11.05-11.35 Marie Comer & Renata Engels
How Spanish put verbs evolved towards auxiliary verbs: Grammaticalization paths and constructional changes
11.35-12.05 Niek Van Welle & Peter Lauwers
Micro-constructionalization of semi-copulas in French: Some side-roads off the beaten grammaticalization path
12.05-13.00 Lunch
13.00-13.30 Emanuel Karlsson
A Radical Construction Grammar approach to the constructionalization of the Indo-European preverbs
13.30-14.00 Anton Granvik
De que in Spanish: observations on the interplay between syntactic change, grammaticalization and constructional patterns
14.00-14.30 Alexandra Verevenekaya
Grammaticalization of locative progressives in Chadic verbal nouns
14.30-14.55 Coffee
14.55-15.25 Béatrice Lamiroy & Anne Carrier
Development of new grammatical categories in Romance: The role of constructions in grammaticalization
15.25-15.55 Muriel Norde
Diachronic Construction Morphology
15.55-16.10 Sum up

VENUE
University of Gothenburg
Faculty of Arts
Department of Philosophy, Linguistics and the Theory of Science
Room T302, Olofs Wijksgatan 6
Gothenburg, Sweden

8–9 October 2015,
University of Gothenburg, Sweden
Room T302, Olofs Wijksgatan 6